Something Else to Want Darliss Batchelor

When Neely Jackson graduated from high school, she was expected to do what every woman in her family did for generations. Not Neely. She wanted something else for her life which deeply disappointed her family especially her father. A chance meeting tests Neely's resolve and causes her to change her mind. But, is it too late for a change of heart? A series of events occur leaving Neely feeling angry, hurt and betrayed by her family all because, for her, there was something else to want.
