Anna knew with the information that she found it would make what she had to do next very significant. After finding out what was really going on in her school, Anna knows teaming up to expose the place for what it is was her destiny. But of course, she also knew that this could change everything, for it might cause a rift in the already tumultuous relationship with her parents. Not only that, they were going after the headmaster of the school, and while they did have help, they knew how important this was, and the stakes at hand. But Anna was ready to move forward, ready to take what was rightfully hers. She knew for a fact that it was only going to become harder and harder, which was why she agreed to this. But would Anna be able to face the demons from her past, and finally stand up for herself in the eyes of her overbearing and religious family?
