Sword of Deliverance The Kingdom of Abbodar worships the dark magic that feeds their craving to control its power and conquer the known world. Their priests offer human sacrifices to their religion, Tershom, and their elite military warriors are infested with the power of the dark ones of the void. Living in the midst of this kingdom is the Remnant, a small group of followers of the One Faith, often referred to as Dissenters because they refuse to follow the ways of the dark magic. The warlock, Drok Relnik, has decided the Dissenters must be eliminated, but now an even greater threat rises. The Gap Warriors have entered the realm, and the warlock will stop at nothing to destroy them. In the shadow of this reign of evil, the voice of destiny calls out to Gerrid, a prisoner and former Talinor commander who stands on the brink of losing his faith. He is summoned by the Ancient of Days to seek out the Remnant and lead them back to Talinor. Once again, the kingdom of light will fight an epic battle with the kingdom of darkness as the defenders of the breach stand as the last hope of deliverance for the faltering Remnant.
