The Truth Swing Francine Phillips

What if Goliath had beheaded David? Daniel had been attacked by the lion? Jonah eaten by the whale? What if God isn't just the rescuer you were taught about in Sunday School?

Francine is hiding from God. Mike is running from God. Theirs is a mid-life romance that led to passion, marriage and a blended family of seven children. This book puts flesh and blood on loss and takes the hands of readers and shows how to place everything - including life itself - in the hands of their maker. The Truth Swing pierces the Sunday School illusion that God always spares his children from suffering. Instead the story demonstrates that God is with us through our suffering even to the end.
