Cooking chili using a slow cooker is ideal as it gives time for the aromatic flavors to enhance the meat. Oftentimes, many chilies are made 'on the go' not giving the spices enough time to work fully, it's a bit like cooking curry at home - it always tastes better the next day. This does not happen when you use the slow cooker, the recipe has many hours for the food to be infused with herbs, spices and seasoning. Most of the recipes featured in this book are cooked on a low setting in the slow cooker, giving you time to go to work or do the chores around the house. Of course, you can speed things up by cooking on high and reducing the time by half. The big plus is that these recipes have very low preparation times so you can literally prep in as little as twenty minutes, dump everything into the slow cooker and finish all the important things on your 'to do list'. SCROLL UP AND CLICK "BUY" TO ORDER YOUR COPY TODAY
