This is a tale of two seemingly dissimilar animals who join forces against their parents in a lively caper involving baby crocodiles and a bubble bath.

At first glance Crocket Dile is a borderline juvenile delinquent who deserves all he gets. However, with the understanding of a kindly policeman we discover that Crocket Dile is someone with whom children relate.

Friendless, a recent immigrant, and ousted by his three baby brother's from his mother's affection, Crocket Dile attempts to entertain himself on a school holiday.

That he does this by visiting Baby Tiger's Block Parent home while the family is absent causes a series of mishaps children love. He traipses in pancake batter in his Nikes, blocks a sink and shower so that they overflow, and finally falls asleep in an overflowing bubble bath.

The ensuing results are discovered by the Tiger family upon their return from the Medical Centre.

Baby Tiger, a spoiled youngster from a first generation family, tries to rectify events which result from Crocket Dile's havoc by calling '911'.

That's when the fun really begins.
