Imbroglio: The Ties of Love and Lies Heather Dawn Robin

Imbroglio, defined: 1) A perplexing and intricate state of affairs: Shannon Moore—professional, headstrong, and blazing her own path—starts doubting the solidity of her life and future when a charming encounter and a chain of perplexing events overtake her. Ensnared in love, lust, and a spiritual odyssey among unsavory dealings, she plunges into a heart-racing journey full of intricate twists and dangerous turns, and her state of affairs provokes more questions than answers. 2) A complicated situation: She's plagued by the warnings: “Don't get involved in something you really don't want to be a part of” and “Things aren't always what they seem...” Throughout the imbroglio, she clamors for freedom in the form of salvation and love, both of which have been strangers far too long.
