To get around a ban on alcohol advertising, a Russian oligarch starts a bank using the same name as his premium bestselling vodka. Russian Standard is still the #1 vodka and is now the largest consumer bank, issuing 77 percent of credit cards in the country. Silk Street market, the epicentre of piracy and counterfeiting in China, launches its own brand. In a press release, the new company announces that anyone using its “brand” outside the market will be held liable. A Thai company reaches millions of consumers by installing combs in the tangled wires above the streets of Bangkok to promote its hair-care products.

We live in a brand new world, where marketing is taking on incredible new forms, especially in the hyper-developing “BRIC” countries: Brazil, Russia, India and China. The almost unimaginable economic growth in these nations is revolutionizing marketing across the planet. Drawing from over two years of extensive travel and research, award-winning creative director Max Lenderman shares groundbreaking marketing strategies and business models that every savvy marketer and corporate visionary needs to understand.

Brisk, fascinating and a little shocking, Brand New World is both a window and a mirror into the future of global marketing.

Brand New World Market Facts:

- To combat piracy, Adobe released sponsored free versions of its software for in China. The Gillette logo appears next to the “cut” command. Xerox sponsors “copy”; Citibank subsidizes “save”; and Tide funds “clear.”
