A director, Liam King, believes the Brickstone Studio gives him the inspiration to write his films. After a confrontation from his colleagues, something snaps. For his next film, he decides to do a reality drama. The only catch is the director and actors are unaware they are being filmed. When Liam holds them hostage, all the different personalities begin to clash, secrets are revealed, and love tries to grow. But, when the film is recording dead air, as the actors are bored and tired, Liam decides to shake things up. Liam's accomplice, Willie Wronski, is torn as Liam spirals out of control. What started off as an audition, turns into a nightmare that changes everyone's lives forever.
