Written by a student for students, Straights A's is a guide for helping you develop the study habits, knowledge, and attitude necessary for success in college. The only book of its kind, Straight A's was written by a medical student who achieved success in college after an average high-school experience. John Stowers offers straightforward advice on time management, study habits (never study past 7 P.M.!), stress control, preparing for and taking exams, and special tips for returning and part-time students.
