The Water Ain't Blue Enough Claudia y. Mason

Cherelle Roberts is a troubled soul who is unable to cope with the rejection of those whom she dearly loves. This rejection causes her to escape to places few have ever been. Cherelle's mother has always been her protector and is determined to help her daughter weather the storms of her life even if it means to revisit her past. The Water Ain't Blue Enough captures the issues of love, life, rejection and redemption.
