How is this dating guide so different from other dating books? Many dating books on the market today tell women how to think like a man, date like a man, and fall in love with a man. Others claim to inform you how to get your man to commit, or even better, how to get your man to marry you. The difference between those dating books and this guide is that this one offers a little of that while also offering scientifically proven, extensively researched information that has successfully helped hundreds of women around the world. In addition, it's the only comprehensive guide on the market for single mothers navigating through the dating process. Shay Williams, also known as Shay Your Date Diva to her fans, is a writer, speaker and relationship coach who is passionate about helping to empower women of all ages to not settle for less than the love experience they deserve. After one heartbreak after another, she decided to go on a journey to uncover the secrets of understanding men, the art of dating and what it takes to attract the right man. This research paid off because after launching her experiment of dating over 100 men within nine months, reading over 50 relationship books and interviewing hundreds of men, women and couples, Shay Your Date Diva discovered that there are common patterns in male-female relationship that either lead to a happy, healthy relationship or a relationship of pain. Shay used her research results and understanding of men to produce two books as a guide to dating and relationships. Shay Your Date Diva also uses her tremendous knowledge to offer relationship advice to women all over the world through her radio and television interviews, as well as her growing youtube.com channel that features over 100 videos sharing her dating experience and expertise.
