Coaching Excellence Peter Freeth

You can read countless books on coaching models, techniques and theories, you can attend courses on many different types of coaching, and you can gain qualifications from institutions all over the world in coaching. And yet all of this is worthless if you cannot achieve three simple things with your clients. Without these three things, you will never achieve the true depth of connection and engagement that enables all of those wonderful techniques to work. You'll be like a car mechanic who has a wonderful, sparkling toolkit but no way to get to the engine. This masterclass will give you those three missing pieces of the puzzle, and show you how to make that magical connection with your clients, so that your work with them will be faster, easier and more rewarding for both of you.
