Now, for the first time, all the museum-related professional codes of ethics have been assembled in one handy reference volume! With codes from all the AAM Standing Professional Committees and standards and policy statements from such organizations as the National Center for Nonprofit Boards and the National Society of Fundraising Executives, this is a complete guide to ethics related to all aspects of museum operations. This book is a valuable resource for any museum seeking to understand the range of ethics and practices at work in its institution, enhance the overall understanding of a broad scope of codes of practice, and improve its own practices. Includes Web addresses for associations, the AAM Accreditation Commission's "Expectations Regarding Institutional Codes of Ethics," and other useful tools.
